

FPOA

The Fresno Police Officers Association (FPOA) is aware of a civil lawsuit filed by Anna Pine, a former employee.

Pine was an at-will employee and was terminated for cause following documented performance and conduct issues. The allegations in her lawsuit are contradicted by extensive documentation and are denied.

Following Pine's termination, the FPOA has uncovered additional evidence that further supports the FPOA's position and denial of Pine's allegations.

Based on the evidence identified and acquired after Pine's termination, the FPOA and La Blue will take all necessary actions to defend themselves and vindicate their rights.

The Association will not litigate this matter through the media and will not comment further.
